This exhibition will explore how Balenciaga's exquisite craftsmanship and innovative designs shaped modern fashion. At the same time, but running through to 18 February 2018, the V&A featured 'Balenciaga: Shaping Fashion', the first UK exhibition about the Spanish fashion designer. Revered by his contemporaries and subsequent fashion designers, Christobal Balenciaga (1895-1972) represented the pinnacle of haute couture in the 1950s. Understatement brought matchless simplicity in the Spanish designer's influential creations for the French fashion house, as this jaw-dropping floor-length cape will show. For 'Balenciaga: Shaping Fashion' the V&A is joined by Bendigo Art Gallery, who will pay homage to the designer as they prepare to host a stunning Balenciaga exhibition entitled "Balenciaga: Shaping Fashion." About our channel: Your Australian visual history: We are the only dedicated online museum for the history and cultures of visual . We are a passionate team of curators, researchers, historians and industry experts who take pride in searching for and sharing rare or forgotten historical treasures, making exhibits accessible to everyone.
